SOURCE Svenska Dagbladet.GREEK, CHINESE, AND YUGOSLAV SETTLERS IN POLAND

Svenska Dagbladet's Bonn office reports that, according to Goettinger Arbeits-kreis, (Goettingen Labor Group) an anti-Communist organization, several thousand Chinese, Greek Communist partisans, and anti-Tito Yugoslavs are employed, mainly in the armament industry, in the former German territories now held by Poland.

According to Polish refugees, approximately 4,000 Greek Communist partisans have settled in Lower Silesia and have found employment with chemical plants in Zaryow which work exclusively on armament projects. Approximately 2,500 Chinese are reported to be living in Szczecin and Gdansk, where most of them are employed as dock workers. (Communist China has an extensive trade agreement with Poland, including, among other things, war material.) Nearly 500 Yugoslav Communists have found employment as agricultural workers on nationalized farms in the vicinity of Wroclaw.
